

US-95 SAGLE TO LAKESHORE DRIVE STUDY

The Idaho Transportation Department is reevaluating a study of US-95 from Sagle to Lakeshore Drive. This reevaluation study will identify any additional transportation needs since the last study was completed and provide more details on what US-95 will look like in the future.

This process could take several years. ITD will share opportunities for the public to participate as this study progresses.

Follow this project at itdprojects.org/us95lakeshoredrive.

